ARTSFUND AWARDS $2.48 MILLION IN 2017 GRANTS

Seattle, WA – ArtsFund is pleased to announce the distribution of $2,489,294 in grants to 58 nonprofit arts and cultural organizations in King and Pierce Counties from its recently concluded annual fundraising campaign. With this allocation, ArtsFund's grants surpassed $79.1 Million awarded since its founding in 1969.

ArtsFund is dedicated to strengthening the community by supporting arts and cultural groups throughout the Central Puget Sound region. Annual grant making is a core component of the organization's mission, complemented by leadership and advocacy programs. Grants are distributed as general operating support, which recipients can use to provide programming and arts education, reduce barriers to arts participation, increase access and opportunity for underserved youth, and for staffing, capacity-building, professional development, and facilities. This unrestricted funding enables grant recipients to invest the funds where needed most to advance their mission.

Mari Horita, ArtsFund President & CEO, stated:

"A robust, diverse, and accessible arts and cultural sector is a critical contributor to our region's health and vitality. ArtsFund is committed to advancing community priorities through the arts, and to contributing to the strength and community impact of arts organizations. Our annual grants are one key way in which we invest in expanding access to the arts, generating farreaching multi-disciplinary cultural programming, and presenting outreach and education programs throughout the region and state."

In 2016, ArtsFund's grants helped 53 arts and cultural organizations mount over 10,150 exhibitions and productions, provide arts access and arts education to 833,768 students, offer 1,736,608 free or discounted tickets, and attract 7,250,491 visits.

Carol Powell, ArtsFund Board Chair, added:

"For nearly 50 years, ArtsFund has been a model of what can be accomplished through community investment for community impact. We believe arts and culture inspire, empower, and transform individuals and communities, and that the arts should reflect, represent, and engage the entire community. Towards this end, ArtsFund raises millions of dollars through our annual fundraising, and we are deeply grateful to the businesses, foundations, and individuals who contributed to this year's campaign."

Revenues from ArtsFund's 46th annual drive, which ended on May 31st, support the 2017 grant allocations, as well as additional programs and services reaching more than 110 organizations throughout the Central Puget Sound region. For a complete list of ArtsFund's cultural partners, visit http://www.artsfund.org/cultural-partners.

Thanks to a generous new $40,000 contribution from Casey Family Programs, ArtsFund was able to significantly increase grant awards to those organizations with programs supporting underserved youth through the arts.

The 2017 Allocations Committee was led by Co-Chairs Sue Coliton, Washington State Arts Commission, and Mark Dederer, Executive Director, Biller Family Foundation.

In complement to ArtsFund's annual grant allocations, in January of 2017, ArtsFund awarded $60,000 in grants to twelve multicultural arts and cultural organizations as part of ArtsFund's Multicultural Arts Project. This pilot grant making initiative was intended to generate support for ethnically and culturally diverse arts organizations and programs in support of the broader community. The MAP funds were distributed as matching incentive grants of $5,000 each, with the objective of empowering recipients to leverage these grants to raise greater support for their organizations.
