

State of the Art

JAMES F. TUNE

PRESIDENT & CEO, 2006-2011

After six years, my tenure as head of ArtsFund has concluded. What a ride it has been!

When I came to ArtsFund in November, 2005, I thought I had a comprehensive knowledge of the arts in our community. I was wrong. I now have a much deeper and wider understanding of our amazing arts community. We have an extraordinary array of arts organizations (visual, performing, literary, film), with a large number of dedicated artists and professionals. The adventure has turned into a smorgasbord of experiences. It has been a fabulous gig.

Two things have impressed me most. First is the extraordinary skill and dedication of our allocations committees in King and Pierce Counties that have been critical to the responsible allocations of funds—providing donors with confidence that their money is well spent. The allocations committees and their values have been supported by the Dwaffler® decision support software, which has been provided to ArtsFund since 1999 and has been continuously improved so that, in 95 percent of the cases, the software accurately predicts how the committees will allocate the funds.

Second is the innovation begun in 2006 to meet regularly with all who applied for funding to discuss the advice of our allocations committees on how they might best improve their operations and opportunities for increased funding. Although time consuming, the meetings provided me with tremendous personal satisfaction and enabled me to get to know the arts managers well. The positive outcomes include helping many groups to weather the difficult economic times and small roles for ArtsFund in facilitating the mergers of Seattle Shakespeare Company with Wooden O Theatre and Early Music Guild with Seattle Baroque Orchestra.

"We have an extraordinary array of arts organizations (visual, performing, literary, film), with a large number of dedicated artists and professionals. The adventure has turned into a smorgasbord of experiences. It has been a fabulous gig."

Now we embrace the future with a new leader, Mari Horita, whom I have known for more than 16 years. Mari is a musician, a lawyer, a nonprofit management expert, a committed community activist and a fierce fundraiser. She's a former board member of ArtsFund and chaired our Associates group some years back. Watch out, world; you can expect to hear from her. I am confident that Mari is the right leader for ArtsFund for years to come.

I've loved every minute of my time here and hope that I have contributed in some small way to the arts and the arts community.

CAMPAIGN 2012

ANNUAL MEETING

Mari Horita Voted Next President & CEO of ArtsFund

ArtsFund's 2011 Annual Meeting took place on November 17th at Seattle Rep's Leo K Theatre, and featured a wonderful musical performance by Felicia Loud and Chic Street Man from the Rep's upcoming production of Pullman Porter Blues by Cheryl L. West. Board Chair Jim Duncan (Sparling) thanked the many individuals and businesses who contributed to Campaign 2011 and gave a special shout-out to Campaign Co-Chairs Stellman Keehnel (DLA Piper, U.S.) and Sandy McDade (Weyerhaeuser) for helping ArtsFund make grants of more than $2.3 million to 63 arts groups. Outgoing President & CEO Jim Tune said that his tenure at ArtsFund has been a rich experience, and his thanks included Chris Longridge and Carol Burch (Dwaffler®) for their software which supports the allocations process. The most exciting news of the night came when, in an executive session, the Board of Trustees voted unanimously to approve the selection of Mari Horita as the next President & CEO of ArtsFund. ArtsFund thanks meeting sponsor Bank of America Merrill Lynch and host Seattle Repertory Theatre for their gracious support.

Kick Off Campaign 2012

Associates Set Inspiring Goal and Train for 2012 Launch

ArtsFund's Campaign 2012 officially kicks off in January, and the Associates Program is already hard at work preparing for a successful year. Nearly 150 arts-loving, civic-minded volunteers, the largest group in program history, met for the Campaign Kick-Off at ACT Theatre on November 30th. Led by Associate Board Chair Ben Lee of The Boeing Company, the evening provided a wonderful opportunity for veteran and new Associates to mingle, as well as an introduction to ArtsFund and fundraising.

The group set a challenging goal of raising $315,000 for the arts in Campaign 2012; this would be a 20% increase over last year. They will prepare for that work at two training sessions which will coincide with the official launch of Campaign 2012. ArtsFund thanks Board Member Ray Heacox of KING Broadcasting and our friends at Puget Sound Energy for generously hosting the training sessions.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT: SPARLING

WORK TOGETHER | STAND APART

As a professional design firm, Sparling loves designing arts venues and has contributed to award-winning venues such as Benaroya Hall, McCaw Hall, EMP, Seattle Rep, Leo K Theatre, ACT, Henry Art Gallery, Wing Luke Museum, Museum of Glass, Bellevue Arts Museum, the new Tateuchi Center, and MOHAI, among others. Sparling works closely with art managers and architects to ensure that the lighting, acoustical, technology, electrical systems and stage lighting enlighten and enhance the experience of art.

Sparling has also been a generous supporter of ArtsFund since 1992 and has been kind enough to share its Chairman Jim Duncan with the ArtsFund Board of Trustees. Jim is about to serve his second term as Board Chair leading ArtsFund expertly during this important period of transition. Jim and his wife Gaylee have worked tirelessly on our behalf. Thanks to Sparling and Jim Duncan for everything they have done on behalf of the arts in our region!

CULTURAL RESOURCE COLLECTIVE

New Members: Burke Museum and Crosscut!

With a database that currently boasts 1 million active unique households, the Cultural Resource Collective (CRC) is quickly becoming one of the most formidable research and collaboration tools for our region's arts and culture community. The 29 member organizations that have uploaded their patron records into a private and secure central database continue to make surprising discoveries about the region's audiences, and inspire other organizations to follow suit. This past quarter, the CRC welcomed Burke Museum of Natural History & Culture and Crosscut Public Media as new members. The lessons learned from their participation will help arts and culture organizations create audience development initiatives more efficiently, provide substantial evidence for grant applications, and disprove notions that those who participate in the arts are few and privileged.

2012 DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHAIRS

ArtsFund is delighted to announce that Stellman Keehnell from DLA Piper and Sandy McDade from Weyerhaeuser will return as Co-Chairs of the 2012 Development Committee. The 2011 Development Committee successfully increased Board participation in fundraising activities in no small part to the leadership of Stellman and Sandy. We look forward to an even stronger year in 2012 with these two at the helm.

ARTSFUND HOLIDAY PARTY

One benefit of contributing to the Arts Benefactor Circle is the opportunity to mingle with fellow arts enthusiasts, Executive and Artistic Directors of arts groups, and other community figures at ArtsFund's annual Holiday Party. This year's event took place on December 2nd at the Rainier Club. Thank you to BNY Mellon for sponsoring this wonderful evening.

THERE'S NEVER BEEN A BETTER TIME TO BECOME AN ARTS BENEFACTOR CIRCLE DONOR

At ArtsFund, individual giving has grown immensely in the past decade, particularly amongst Arts Benefactor Circle donors (individuals who donate $1,000 or more). To express our appreciation for their loyal commitment and support, ArtsFund offers Arts Benefactor Circle donors a variety of personal and engaging benefits that provide access to arts and community leaders, and more chances to see the fantastic art made possible by their contribution. For a comprehensive list of benefits and to learn more about the Arts Benefactor Circle, please contact Annemarie Scalzo at Annemaries@artsfund.org or visit our website at www.artsfund.org.
