ARTSFUND ADVANCES OUR MISSION IN ALIGNMENT WITH THREE KEY VALUES.

INVEST WHERE ARTSFUND’S VALUES INTERSECT WITH YOUR OWN.

1) IGNITE PASSION FOR THE ARTS.

2) PROMOTE EQUITABLE AND INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES.

3) INNOVATE THROUGH COLLABORATION AND LEADERSHIP
ALLOCATIONS PROCESS & GRANTS

ArtsFund’s Signature Program

THE NEED

The arts are a key component to the many markers of a healthy community, including a vibrant economy, strong educational opportunities, and engaged and compassionate citizens. The arts fuel our economy by creating jobs, generating tax revenue and driving tourism. They inspire creative thinking and problem solving in schools and at work. Through art, we are better able to understand our differences as well as our similarities, and in turn develop empathy and tolerance. Cities with high concentrations of art have increased civic engagement, social cohesion, child welfare, and less crime and poverty. Students with an education rich in the arts have higher GPAs and standardized test scores, and lower drop-out rates. The arts enhance our quality of life, but they cannot do it alone. Ticket prices cover less than 50% of an arts organization’s budget. ArtsFund’s general operating grants help fill that gap.

DESCRIPTION

Annual grant making is a core component of ArtsFund’s mission, complemented by our leadership and advocacy programs. Grants are distributed as general operating support, which recipients can use to provide programming and arts education, reduce barriers to arts participation, and increase access and opportunity for underserved youth, as well as for staffing, capacity-building, professional development, and facilities. This unrestricted funding enables grant recipients to invest the funds where most needed to advance their missions. ArtsFund has distributed more than $80 million in grants to a broad range of arts and cultural organizations throughout King and Pierce Counties. In 2017, ArtsFund awarded annual grants totaling over $2.48 million and helped arts organizations produce thousands of events, exhibits and performances, provide access to over 800,000 students, and provide over 1.7 million free or discounted tickets. Both donors and grant recipients trust ArtsFund’s allocations process. The Allocations Committee is comprised of corporate and private grant making experts who engage with ArtsFund in a thorough vetting process, evaluating application materials and interviewing the leadership of applicant arts groups. The Committee systematically rates each group against the same key evaluation points based on mission, financial stability, governance and community impact.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Gifts of all sizes! All standard donor benefits associated with gift level apply.

“IT’s hard to pick a favorite arts organization and run with it. There’s a lot of noise out there. For us, ArtsFund has been the most effective way to support the arts. They know the community and their system has integrity. They have a rigorous grant-making process, and they cover the entire spectrum of arts organizations, large and small.”

Brad Berg, Delta Dental, COO; ArtsFund Trustee

VISIONARIES (AFV) AND POP UP EVENTS

DESCRIPTION

Millennials, born between 1980 and 2000, are considered to be a generation with a strong social conscience. Nearly three-quarters of individuals in this age range volunteer, yet less than 40 percent donate $25 or more to philanthropy annually. The future health of the nonprofit arts sector depends on engaging the next generation of arts donors and champions. The ArtsFund Visionaries connects emerging leaders and business professionals between 21 and 45 years of age to ArtsFund’s vision – a community where the arts are accessible to all and valued as critical to a healthy society. Contributing $540 annually or $45 a month, AFV members receive special access to arts events, leadership trainings and networking opportunities. Designed to appeal to the millennial workforce, this program builds the next generation of arts supporters.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Event specific opportunities begin at $5,000 and include logo placement on event invitations and signage.

Program sponsorship exclusivity offered at $25,000 and includes recognition on the ArtsFund Visionaries webpage, digital communications, printed collateral materials, and event invitations and signage.

INSIDER EVENT SERIES

DESCRIPTION

Ensuring the future health of the nonprofit arts sector demands that we constantly grow and strength the base of individuals supporting the arts and ArtsFund. While advocacy efforts, such as the Social Impact Study, make the case for supporting the nonprofit arts and culture sector, this work is most effectively complemented by a powerful visceral experience with art. ArtsFund INSIDER Events combine both elements, bringing current and potential supporters behind-the-scenes for unforgettable arts experiences that demonstrate the value of our work in the arts and cultural community. Each INSIDER event is tailored to appeal to business and community leaders, featuring a curated, one-of-a-kind arts experience and a hosted reception in an intimate setting.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Sponsorships start at $5,000 and includes a unique opportunity to network with community and business leaders in an intimate setting, an opportunity to provide welcome comments at the event, and logo visibility on invitations and signage.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.
PROMOTE EQUITABLE AND INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

WE BELIEVE THE ARTS SHOULD BE ACCESSIBLE TO ALL AND REFLECT, REPRESENT, AND ENGAGE THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY.

1) Youth Access & Opportunities Fund (YAOF)
2) Multicultural Arts Project (MAP)
3) Creative Equity Fund
4) Setting the Table for More Diverse Non-Profit Boards
5) Mary Helen Moore Diversity Fund
6) Cultural Accessibility Consortium (CAC)
THE NEED

Students involved in arts programs have higher attendance rates, lower dropout rates and decreased disciplinary problems. A student involved in the arts is four times more likely to be recognized for academic achievement or to participate in a math and science fair, and three times more likely to win an award for school attendance or to be elected to class office. There are countless studies demonstrating the important role of the arts in youth development. Studies also show that the benefits of the arts are even greater for low income students. Access to the arts helps level the playing field and ensure academic success for children from all socio-economic backgrounds. However, children who have the most to benefit are often the least likely to have access to art because of drastic funding cuts in schools, and other socio-economic barriers. Arts organizations in our region have stepped up to help fill the gap, but they too are facing budget cuts, and need increased funding to continue offering these important programs.

DESCRIPTION

The Youth Access and Opportunities Fund (YAOF) vets and supports organizations and programs that demonstrate an authentic commitment and effective means to supporting underserved youth through the arts. ArtsFund believes in the power of the arts to improve and even transform lives. Donations to the YAOF help break down barriers and build opportunity and hope for those who need it most but are least likely to have access. As programming and scholarship around this intersection continue to evolve, we will seek additional ways of advancing this important work.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Giving levels start at $1,000. Donors of $10,000 or more will be offered the opportunity to select which organizations their funds are directed to from a list vetted by ArtsFund.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

"STG has a key goal of growing our Education & Community Programs resources between 2014-2019. ArtsFund’s support has allowed us to deliver on our key goal. By way of example, this season we added AILEY CAMP to STG’s Education & Community Programs - a personal development camp for young people aged 11-14 in South King County. ArtsFund’s support, and that of their donors, inspires us and makes us realize we are not alone in believing that arts programs (like AILEY CAMP) build a better future for all."

MULTICULTURAL ARTS PROJECT (MAP)

THE NEED
As the region's demographic has evolved, so too has the demographic of the cultural sector. Many racially and ethnically diverse arts and cultural groups act as important stewards of their cultural communities. These organizations are doing inspiring work - using art as a tool to enhance understanding across cultural, generational, and even geographic boundaries - but they have historically been excluded from many traditional funding opportunities.

DESCRIPTION
ArtsFund’s Multicultural Arts Project (MAP) was created to broaden the range of arts and cultural organizations served by ArtsFund, and to empower racially, ethnically, and culturally diverse organizations by providing them with unrestricted grants. MAP grantees are encouraged to use the funds (typically awarded in $4,500-$5,000 grants) as matching funds, with the objective of empowering recipients to leverage the ArtsFund grants to raise greater financial support for their organizations. MAP recipients are invited to join ArtsFund’s Cultural Partners Network, which provides access to free capacity and leadership building trainings, visibility opportunities, and networking events connecting with potential community supporters. MAP helps break down traditional funding barriers and provides opportunities for recipients to build capacity and visibility.

CREATIVE EQUITY FUND

THE NEED
From housing and homelessness to education and health, people of color in our community experience disproportionately negative outcomes across a wide range of areas. The Creative Equity Fund is designed to support and encourage arts-and-culture-based strategies that build racial justice and address those disparities. Arts and culture are powerful tools for engaging the community in collective change. They ignite civil discourse, inspire action, and help us imagine and advocate for a just world.

DESCRIPTION
The Creative Equity Fund aims to direct at least $100,000 per year to support both arts and cultural groups and other community-based organizations in King County that are led by, for, and about people of color, and which use arts and culture strategies to work toward racial equity. The Creative Equity Fund was co-designed by a team of community members of color with experience in the arts and philanthropy. A collaborative of funders — ArtsFund, Seattle Office of Arts & Culture, Seattle Foundation, Macklemore and The Boeing Company — created the initial framework, and the Fund is administered by Seattle Foundation.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE
Giving levels range $5,000 - $25,000
All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

THE NEED

Nonprofit boards across the United States are not reflective of the nation’s demographics. 2017 national research (Board Source) indicates that despite a widespread acknowledgement of the importance of board diversity, many nonprofit boards are struggling to achieve board composition that reflects their values in terms of diversity and inclusivity, and boards remain majority white, male, and over 50 years of age. Data shows that boards are no more diverse than they were two years ago, and current recruitment priorities indicate this is unlikely to change. Data collected by ArtsFund, specific to arts & cultural nonprofits in our region, shows somewhat comparable statistics. While we see indications that the percent of cultural boards that are all white is decreasing over the past 10 years, it’s far from matching the region’s demographics.

DESCRIPTION

Setting the Table for More Diverse Nonprofit Boards (STT) is a community event focused on expanding racial, ethnic, and cultural diversity in civic and cultural board leadership. Boards will not become more diverse without changes in their board recruitment practices. Now in its 3rd year, this event has proven to be effective in connecting mid-career professionals of color interested in arts board service with leadership opportunities. Sponsors of this event are critical partners in forging these new connections. Events include candid panel discussions featuring seasoned community, business and political leadership. Evenings also offer networking opportunities, facilitating connections between arts organizations looking to expend diverse representation on their boards and community members interested in service. In the first two years of this event, we have had 120 attendees from 82 businesses attend, have hosted 33 tabling groups for board recruitment, and have tracked multiple board and committee commitments as a result of the event. The intended impact of these events is threefold: increased diverse and equitable representation in board leadership of cultural organizations; increased understanding of why such leadership representation matters; and better equipping existing and future arts board leaders to serve and be responsive to the region’s evolving demographic in collaboration with their staffs.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Sponsorship opportunities begin at $10,000. When confirmed by 2/15 logo recognition on all promotions and materials (both print and online), event signage, and verbal recognition at the events. Opportunity to offer brief introductory remarks at the events.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

MARY HELEN MOORE DIVERSITY FUND

THE NEED

To support a full creative life for all, it is essential that nonprofit arts organizations enact policies and practices of cultural equity that empower a just, inclusive, equitable community.

DESCRIPTION

Named in honor of a previous Allocations committee member, the Mary Helen Moore Diversity Award recognizes organizations that demonstrate an authentic and proven commitment to fostering a racially diverse and inclusive organizational culture in programming, leadership, and operations.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Gift levels start at $5,000.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

The grants we get from ArtsFund are probably twice as valuable as any program grant we get because they support far more than a singular part of our work. Our exhibits, neighborhood tours and community programs are all supported by these funds, which also enable us to run programs like our YouthCAN Teen Program, providing youth with hands-on opportunities to express themselves creatively and develop leadership and communication skills, while learning about their cultural heritage. ArtsFund is simply life-giving for The Wing and arts in the region!

CULTURAL ACCESSIBILITY CONSORTIUM (CAC)

THE NEED

Studies show that exposure to the arts have emotional, physical, mental, cognitive, and creative benefits that are universal to all people. Unfortunately, those with disabilities are currently under represented in arts audiences, in administrative positions at arts institutions, as well as on the stage, and the benefits the arts provide are not always as accessible to them as they are to the rest of the population. In the Puget Sound, there is currently no comprehensive resource for individuals with disabilities to find upcoming accessible arts experiences, or to connect with jobs and creative opportunities within the arts and cultural sector. Similarly, there are few low-cost/scalable resources available to arts institutions that would like to become more accessible.

DESCRIPTION

The CAC is a collaborative of organizations (ArtsFund, the Seattle Office of Arts and Culture, 4Culture, and the Washington State Fathers Network, a program of Kindering) working to provide broader access to arts and cultural programs and accessibility resources for artists, administrators, and patrons with disabilities. Donations in support of ArtsFund’s work with the CAC will help fund a tangible accessibility website with information and resources tailored to artists, administrators, and patrons in the Puget Sound region, as well as a series of events and trainings for arts and cultural institutions in our community that are striving to become more accessible.

ARTS X COMMUNITY

INNOVATE THROUGH COLLABORATION AND LEADERSHIP

WE BELIEVE OUR IMPACT AND RELEVANCE, AND THAT OF THE ARTS SECTOR, ARE DEEPENED THROUGH CONTINUOUS LEARNING, CREATIVE LEADERSHIP, AND STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS.

1) Social Impact Study Community Conversations
2) Board Leadership Training
3) Convenings, Community Events, & Cultural Partners Network
SOCIAL IMPACT STUDY COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

THE NEED

For over 20 years, ArtsFund has produced Economic Impact Studies (EIS) that demonstrate the important role of arts and cultural organizations in creating jobs, generating tax revenue, and driving tourism. These numbers are compelling, but they do not speak to the arts’ unique value in advancing community priorities like education and youth development, business recruitment and talent retention, health and healing, and neighborhood vitality. We intrinsically value the role the arts play in our lives, but there has been no comprehensive study of their broader community impact in our region – until now. This October ArtsFund will release the Social Impact Study (SIS) – an innovative new resource that will serve as a companion piece to our EIS and round out the case for the value of the arts.

DESCRIPTION

ArtsFund will be hosting a series of community conversations around the SIS to ensure the study resonates as a tool that can be widely used by those charged with shaping our community’s growth including civic, business and public-sector leaders. A free public event at Town Hall, including a VIP Reception, is currently being planned for April 2019. Presentations to business leadership organizations, chambers of commerce, arts boards and commissions, rotaries, elected officials, civic leadership networks, and special interest groups in the study’s core focus areas of education, health and neighborhood development are also in the works.

THE NEED

Highly effective boards are the result of engaged board members who continuously develop their knowledge and skills within and beyond the board room but leadership in nonprofit arts organizations presents a specific set of challenges and therefore requires a unique set of skills.

DESCRIPTION

Introduced in 1999, ArtsFund’s Board Leadership Training Program equips current and future board members with the skills needed to help arts organizations succeed financially and artistically. The five-session training program is taught by a faculty of the region’s top nonprofit experts. The curriculum focuses on the arts but is applicable to any nonprofit organization. Participants receive 10 hours of classroom instruction covering fiscal and legal responsibilities, fundraising, strategic planning, and best governance practices.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Sponsorship of the upcoming spring session is $7,500.

Sponsors must be confirmed by 2/18/19 for inclusion on materials and invitations.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

“Board Leadership Training provided me with the tools to become an effective, engaged, and informed board member. I can’t wait to bring these lessons to my board and take our leadership and support to the next level.”

CONVENINGS, COMMUNITY EVENTS, & CULTURAL PARTNERS

THE NEED

The Puget Sound Region is host to a wide range of arts, cultural, and heritage organizations of all disciplines and scales. To move beyond survival towards sustainability and success, cultural organizations and their staffs need access to leadership and capacity building programs to help them meet the challenges they face, increased visibility, empowered community leaders and volunteers in their support, and opportunities for peer-to-peer learning.

DESCRIPTION

ArtsFund’s convenings serve a diverse array of arts and culture groups, many of which are too small or do not have the infrastructure to otherwise connect with these resources, or with one another. Our community events connect community members interested in leadership opportunities within the cultural sector, and our Cultural Partners Network (CPN) deepens ties between organizations, provides capacity building resources, and generates exposure to new audiences and donors.

Since launching our convenings program in 2013, we have served over 800 attendees from nearly 200 organizations in quarterly events. Serving both staff members, board leaders, and community volunteers for cultural organizations, our in-person convenings and webinars are scoped in response to need and designed in collaboration with our regional cultural partners and national thought leaders and experts in the challenge areas being addressed. CPN organizations range from budget sizes of $5K to $35M, and include youth based, service oriented, and culturally diverse groups, as well as traditional performing arts groups. We launched this network in 2016, and it has grown to include 118 member organizations throughout the Central Puget Sound Region, many of whom identify new partnerships formed as a result of network participation.

SPECIAL BENEFITS AND FUNDING RANGE

Sponsorship levels begin at $10,000. Logo recognition on all promotional and archived materials for convenings (online and in print) and event signage; logo recognition on Cultural Partners website page, in all Cultural Partners newsletters, and at Cultural Partners events. Verbal recognition at all Cultural Partners events and convenings. Opportunity to offer brief introductory remarks at events.

All standard benefits associated with gift level apply.

“The fellow leaders in Artsfund’s Cultural Partners Network are a valuable think tank - creative thinkers willing to share their skills. I look forward to the networking opportunities this group affords, but more importantly, we’re able to collaboratively tackle some of the issues facing arts organizations in our swiftly changing city - funding, social or political issues, audience growth, staffing, and real estate or space challenges.”
